Events Creation - From a routine business update to the award trip of a lifetime, we help clients give recipients memorable experiences to deliver maximum value from every occasion.

Group Travel - We manage the logistical aspects of getting your delegates to and from your meetings and events, including handling complex itineraries and unique requirements. Attendees are managed as a group rather than as individual travelers, ensuring coordination of travel plans.

Strategic Meeting Management - We shall be your reliable partner for professional planning and preparation of offsite Board Meetings, Sales Meets, Trainings, Seminars and Conferences that fulfill business objectives.

How do you get it all? Give us a call, let us know your budget, and leave the rest to us. Of course, these MICE tours are not always all work and no play. If you require, we can also tailor pre and post event itineraries, if you need to extend the tour.

Service :

Service Businesses live on their reputation, but service is a difficult thing to quantify as it can mean different things to different people. Our experience has taught us that, like people, every client, business, or organization that we work with is unique, and that's why we don't adopt a 'One Size Fits All' approach. This approach starts with the initial consultation with one of our Business Development team, through to a detailed implementation plan and finally into the everyday dealings with our Travel Consultants and the dedicated Account Managers.

Service is also about range and World Wide Vacations Corporate Travel takes pride in offering more in-house solutions than most.

Your Account Manager will take the time to understand your business. They will probably already be familiar with your sector so can advise which services are right for you. With a team of specialists to call on, your Account Manager ensures that your partnership with World Wide Vacations really delivers.

Your Business, Our Commitment to Value :

Our teams, spearheaded by designated Business Heads, are specially selected based upon their intimate knowledge of the Travel industry or sector. As World Wide Vacations, our travel team will work closely with our clients to establish goals before setting out to implement them.

Dear Mr. Bharat,

Our sincere thanks to you and your young team for organising our annual conference in Thailand from 28th April to 01st May 2017 which was a grand success and appreciated by all in the team.
